

STAGE MANAGER

THE PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

LARRY FAZIO

Contents

1. Introduction 1

- The Professional Gap 1
- Learning the Hard Way 1
- The Human and Psychological Side 1
- Objective and Intention of This Book 2
 - The Chapters 2
 - End of Chapter Features 2
 - A Glossary of Words, Terms, Expressions, and Phrases 3
- A Definition of Professional 3
- The Distinguishing Line 3
- The Most Important Work 4
- The Musical Play 4
- Standard Stage Manager Titles and Their Abbreviations 4
- The ASM 4
- Women SMs 5
- A History of SMing 5
- The Professional Experience 5
- Interviews 6

2. The Anatomy of a Good Stage Manager 8

- The Practical Application 8
- The Qualities of a Good SM 10
- The Spirit of an SM 12
 - The Right Stuff 12
 - Core of the Spirit 12
 - A Need for Perfection 13
 - Control 13
- Anatomy of the ASM 13
- Show Business: A Glamorous Business 14
- Interviews 14

3. The Stage Manager's Chain of Command List 16

- The Production Executives 17
- The Production Office Staff 19
- The Creators 19
- The Production Staff 20
- The Performing Artists and Actor's Equity 22
- The Technical Staff: Designers, Department Heads, Their Assistants, and Crewmembers 22
- The Shops and Vendors 23
- The Theatre, Performance Site, or Venue 23
- In Review 24

4. Stage Manager for Hire: Seeking Work, Getting the Job, and Being Hired Again and Again 25

- Networking 25
- Building a Resume 25
 - Presentation of the Resume 25
 - The Layout 25
 - The Credits 26
 - One-Page Resumes 26
 - Slanting the Resume and Additional Credit Headings 26
 - Repetitive Credits 26
 - Absence of Dates 26
 - Further Experience 26
 - References 26
 - Optional Information 28
- Establishing a Good Reputation 28
- Good Word-of-Mouth 28
- Interviewing for the Job 28
 - Gut Feeling 28
 - Controlling the Interview and the Outcome 28

Wanting the Job	29
First Impressions	29
Dressing the Part	29
The Chit-Chat Part of the Interview	29
The Other Side of Interviewing	29
The Most Difficult Parts of Interviewing	30
Getting an Equity Card	30
Persistence, Paying Dues, Doing Your Best	30
The Terms of the Contract	30
Negotiating	30
Personal Financial Planning, Budgeting, and Support for the SM	31
Unemployment Insurance Benefits	31
The SM's Survival Kit	31
The Professional Experience	31
Proud to Join the Ranks	31
The Terminator Negotiator	32
That Gut Feeling	32
Interviews	33

5. Tools, Supplies, and Equipment 35

The SM's Portable Office	35
The SM's Console	35
The SM's Bag	35
The SM's Box	39
The SM's Filing System	39
Other Items in the SM's Box	40
Today's Stage Manager	41
Electronic Equipment	41
Software	42
In Transition	42
The Professional Experience	42
The Well-Supplied SM	42
Log Book: Star Witness	43

6. Hard Copy: Charts, Plots, Plans, and Lists 44

Forms Defined	44
The Scene/Character Tracking Chart	44
Our Imaginary Play	44
Beginning the Scene/Character Tracking Chart	45
A Refinement	45

The Heading	46
Breaking Down the Play by Scenes	46
Subdivision of Scenes, or French Scenes	47
Naming or Tagging a Scene	47
The Character/Actor-Actor/Character List	49
The Sign-in Sheet	50
The Rehearsal Sign-in Sheet and Performance Sign-in Sheet	50
Listing the Actors' Names on the Sign-in Sheet	51
The Day Off While in Rehearsals	51
The Performance Sign-in Sheet	51
Matinee Performances	51
The Day Off When in Performance	51
Address Lists and Contact Sheet	51
The Cast Address List and Staff Address List	51
The Contact Sheet	52
Schedules	52
The Block Calendar	52
The Daily Schedule	54
The SM's Personal Floor Plans	54
Starting with the Blueprints	55
SMs' Knowledge of the Set	55
From Blueprints to the Personal Floor Plans	57
Computer-Generated Floor Plans	57
The SM's Personal Floor Plans for Annie Get Your Gun	58
The Hello Jerry Personal Floor Plans	60
Personal Floor Plans for the One-Set Comedy, John and Mary	61
Lists	63
The Schedule Reminder List	63
Industry Phone Numbers List	63
The Correct Spelling of Names List	63
The Prop List	64
Sound Lists	66
Body Mic Tracking Chart	70
Dressing Room Assignments List	70
Show Rundown or Running Order	70
Performance Running-Time Chart	71
Show Reports	73
Changes and Revisions	73
Hard Copy for Which the SM Is Not Responsible	74
In Closing	74

7. Profiles and Working Relationships 75

- First and Foremost 75
 - A Starting Point 75
 - Turning Inward 76
- The Three Parts of the Inner Self 76
- Personal Belief Systems 76
 - Making Personal Change 77
- The Spiritual Self 77
- Anger and Fear 77
- A Lifetime Work-in-Progress 78
- Ego 78
 - The SM's Ego 78
 - Working with Ego 78
- The Issue of Control and Perfection 78
- Dealing with Disagreement, Conflict, Confrontation 79
 - "You" Versus "I" 79
 - The Art of Listening 79
 - Bringing Closure 79
- Setting Limits, Boundaries, and Expectations 79
 - The Power and Position of an SM 80
- Profiles: Superiors, Peers, and Associates 80
 - Producer 80
 - Founder, General Manager, Executive Producer 81
 - Associate Producer 81
 - Company Manager 81
 - Production Secretary 82
 - Casting Director 82
 - Publicity: Press, Programs, and Photography 82
 - Office Staff 82
 - Author, Composer, and Lyricist 83
 - Director 83
 - Assistant Director 85
 - Music Director 85
 - Rehearsal Pianist 86
 - The Music Arrangers: Vocal, Dance, Orchestration, and Copyist 86
 - Choreographer 86
 - Dance Captain and Swing Dancer 87
 - Performers 87
 - Children Performers 91
 - Actor's Equity 91
 - Designers 92
 - Technicians 92
 - Technical Director (TD) 94

- Head Carpenter 95
- Head Flyman or Head of the Rail 95
- Head of Props (Propman, Prop Master, or Property Master) 95
- The Electrical Department (Lighting) 95
- The Sound Department and Head of Sound 96
- I.A.T.S.E.: The Stagehand's Union 97
- Costume/Wardrobe Department 97
- The Hair Department 98
- Shops and Vendors 98
- The Performance Site and Their Personnel 98
 - In Closing 99
- The Professional Experience 99
 - Personal Beliefs 100
 - A Central Dance Figure 100
 - Star Power 101
 - Baby June's Mom: Mamma Rose 101
 - Maintaining Artistic Integrity 102
 - Electrical Storm 103

8. Running Auditions 104

- The Equity Field Representative 104
- The Auditioning Staff 104
- Types of Audition Calls 104
 - The Open Call or Cattle Call 104
 - Auditioning by Appointment 105
 - Auditions for Musicals 105
 - Singing Auditions for a Role 105
 - Ensemble Auditions 105
- Star and Lead Role Auditions 106
- Actors' Representatives 106
- Auditions for the Non-Equity Actor 106
- Preparing for the Auditions 106
 - Becoming Familiar with the Script 106
 - Communicating with the Audition Site 106
 - Office Supplies 107
 - Directional Signs 108
 - Audition Instruction Sheet 108
 - The Audition Sign-in Sheet 108
 - Choosing Scenes for the Audition 108
- The Audition Space 110
 - Dividing the Audition Space 110
- Setting Up the Reception Area 110
 - The Sign-in Table 110
 - Seating 110
 - Toilet Facilities and Drinking Water 110

Setting Up the Audition Area	110
The Setup in a Theatre	110
The Setup in an Audition Room	111
Quiet Please! Audition in Progress	111
The SM's Art and Craft in Working the
Audition Room	112
Serving the Actors	112
Reading the Scenes with Actors	113
Bringing Closure to the Audition	113
Your Best Sixteen Bars	113
A Second Time Around	113
SM as Time Keeper	114
Callback Auditions	114
Actors Getting a Callback	114
The Spirit of Callback Auditions	115
Working the Callback Auditions	115
SMs Conducting the First Auditions	115
You Got the Job!	116
The SM's Expressed Opinion	116
In Closing	116
The Professional Experience	117
An Epic Audition	117
Serving the Director's Audition Needs	118

9. The SM's Production Week 120

Homework	120
At the Production Office	120
On the First Day	121
The Block Calendar	121
Key Information	121
Under the SM's Watchful Eyes	122
Production Meeting	122
Making Phone Calls and Creating the Address
Lists	122
Personal Contact	122
Information Needed	123
Applying the Art of Listening	123
The Contact Sheet	124
Contacting the Equity Field Representative	124
Settling in to a Calmer Pace	124
The Scene/Character Tracking Chart	124
Character/Actor–Actor/Character List	124
The SM's Personal Floor Plans	124
Completing the List of Hard Copy Work	125
Assembling and Distributing Packets of
Information	125
Revisions of Information	125
Scripts	125

Distribution of Scripts	125
Script Copying	126
The Paperback Play Book	126
Finishing the Production Week	126
Rehearsal Rooms	126
Taping the Rehearsal Room Floor	127
Rehearsal Props and Furniture	129
The Equity Callboard	129
The Finishing Touches on the Rehearsal Room	130
In Closing	130
The Professional Experience	130
Fritzie: A Lasting Impression	131

10. Rehearsals 133

The First Day of Rehearsals	133
The First Day Rehearsal Hall Setup	133
Setting Up for Equity	134
Setting Up the Social Amenities	134
Additional Setup	134
Arrival of the Cast	134
The Equity Business Hour	135
The Equity Business to Be Done	135
Attendance at the Equity Hour	135
The SM's Formal Welcome	135
Costume Measurements	136
Eight-by-Ten Glossies and Brief Biographies	136
Enter the Producer, Director, and Star	136
Reading the Play	136
Breaks for the Cast	137
The Director and Breaks	137
The Stopwatch	137
The Mid-Day Meal Break	137
After Mid-Day Break	138
More on the Director and SM's Working
Relationship	138
A Nightmare SM–Director Relationship	138
What Directors Expect from Their SMs	139
The Director's Rehearsal Time	139
Breaking into the Director's Creative
Process	139
The SM's Notepad	140
Making the Daily Schedule	140
Creation of the Daily Schedule	140
Distribution of the Daily Schedule	141
Working in Realistic Time	141

- Poor Use of Time 141
- Considering the Actors in the Schedule 141
- Dealing with People Being Late 142
 - Late Actors 142
 - Late Director or Stars 142
- The Equity Rulebook 142
- The Day's End 143
 - The End of the Day for the SM 143
- Production Meetings 143
- The Work Continues 144

11. The Rehearsal Script 145

- Learning the Show and Gathering Information 145
 - Set Design 145
 - Costumes 145
 - Music 145
- Blocking 145
- A Definition of Blocking 146
 - Personal Blocking 146
 - Famous Blocking 146
- The SM's Responsibility for Noting Blocking 146
- The Speed Required for Making Blocking Notes 147
 - The SM's Shorthand 147
- Knowing Your Right from Your Left 147
- The Stage Breakdown 147
 - The Center Stage Line 147
 - Up Stage and Down Stage 149
 - The Apron 149
 - Greater Division of the Stage 149
 - Additional Reference Points 152
 - The Complete Stage Breakdown Picture 152
- Arena Staging 152
- Additional Abbreviations for Noting Blocking 153
- Abbreviations for Character Names 154
- Moving Symbols 154
 - Arrows 155
- Some General SM Abbreviations 156
- Noting Blocking for Busy Scenes 156
- The Absence of Some Blocking Details 157
- Neat Blocking Notes 158
- The Numerical Way to Note Blocking 158
- The Publisher's Printed Stage Directions and Technical Effects 158

- Organizing the Rehearsal/Blocking Script 161
 - Tabbing the Scenes 161
 - Inserting the SM's Personal Floor Plans 162
 - Script Changes 162
- Following Script 163
 - Following Script for the Director 163
 - Following Script for the Actors 163
 - Calling Out Lines 164
- Calling Technical Cues in Rehearsals 164
 - The SM's Delivery Technique 164
- Timing Scenes, Acts, and the Whole Show 164
- Props 165
 - Detailing the Props 165
 - Red Flag Props 165
 - The Metamorphosis of the Prop List 165
- In Closing 166

12. The Last Week of Rehearsals 167

- The Shift in Work 167
- Meetings 167
 - Lighting Meeting 168
 - Set Moves/Scene Changes Meeting (Paper Tech) 168
 - Sound Cues Meeting 168
 - Costumes/Wardrobe and Hair Meetings 169
 - Meeting with the Music Department 169
 - Set Designer/Construction Shop Meetings 169
- Advice to the SM 169
- The ASM 170
- Birth of the Cueing or Calling Script 170
- Run-Throughs of the Show 170
 - The Director's Obligation to Have Run-Thrus 170
 - The SM's Contributions to the Run-Thrus 171
 - Invited Guests for Run-Thrus 171
- Preparing the Cast for the Changeover 172
- Supplementary Rehearsal Space 174
- Closing Out the Rehearsal Hall 175

13. The Cueing Script 176

- The SM's Master Plan or Conducting Score 176
- Preparing the Cueing Script 176

Manuscript Size	177
Cutting and Pasting Ends of Scenes	177
Everyone Working from the Same Script	177
Tabbing the Cueing Script	177
Cue Gathering	177
Noting the Cues	177
Electric Cues	178
Abbreviations for Noting Cues	178
Color Coding	179
Practical Application in Noting Cues	180
The Caret	180
Making Changes and Refining Timing	180
Color Coding Figure 13-2	180
Point Cues	180
Boxed Information	183
Key Notes in Parentheses	183
Bracketed Cues	184
The Rail Cue	184
Cues Cut from the Show	184
A Group of Cues	184
Noting Spotlight Cues	184
A Complicated Sequence or Grouping of Cues	185
Color Coding Figure 13-6	186
A Granddaddy Cue Sequence	187
Color Coding Figure 13-7	187
Noting WARN: Cues	187
Noting Cues for the Opening of the Show	190
Thirty Minutes Before Show Time	190
Noting the Half-Hour Call in the Cueing Script	190
Head Count	190
Putting in the First Set of WARN:s	191
Pre-Show	191
Example	191
Mastering Figure 13-10	193
Calling the Cues	193
Reaction Time	193
Feeling at Home at the SM's Console	194
Three Parts to Calling Cues	196
Calling Spotlight Cues	197
QUICK, Turn Page, More Cues	197
Calling Cues with Clarity	198
The SM's Pattern and Rhythm	198
Vocal Inflection	198
Watching the Stage	198
Tight and Flowing	199
Visualizing Scene Changes and Transitions	199

Giving Hand Cues	199
Working in a Congenial, Pleasant, and Businesslike Manner	200
In Closing	200
The Professional Experience	200
Lost and Never Found: An SM's Nightmare	201

14. Technical Rehearsals 202

The PSM and ASM	202
No Rest for the SM	202
The Cast's Work Schedule	202
The Nature of Technical Rehearsals	202
The SM Entering Techs	203
The SM's Work in Techs	203
First Business of the Day	204
The Company Callboard	206
Directional Signs	207
No Let Up for the SM	207
The SM's Second Day of Techs	207
The SM's Psychology of Good Timing	208
Grey Responsibilities	209
In the Line of Fire, Magnified	209
The Crew's Expectations of the SM	209
Cast and Crew Coming Together	209
Preventative Measures	210
The SM Sets the Example	210
The Daily Tech Schedule	210
Division of Labor	211
The Working Relationships of Techs	211
The SM	212
The Director	212
The SM, Producer, and Director	212
The Cast	212
The Crew	213
Let the Techs Begin	213
The Heart of Techs	214
Laying In Spike Marks	214
Changes and Cleaning Up the Cueing Script	214
The Next Phase of Techs	215
Actors' Entrances	215
Nipping It in the Bud	216
Timing the Show, or the Running Time	216
Show Rundown Sheets	216
Dry Techs	216
Scenery Plot and Fly Plot	216
Checking Sight Lines	216
The Blue Work Lights	217

Crucial Cues	217
Costumes, Hair, and Makeup	217
Musicals: The Orchestra	218
Scheduling the Orchestra	218
Rehearsal Space for the Orchestra	218
The SM's Responsibility for the Orchestra
Rehearsal	219
Before the Arrival of the Fire Marshal	219
The Fire Marshal's Arrival	219
Another Grey Responsibility	219
The Final Phase of Techs	219
Collecting and Returning Valuables	219
Techs Continue	220
Performance Level	220
The Director Giving Notes	220
Important Information for the SM	220
Performance Show Reports	220
Detailed Timing Forms	221
Production Photos or Videos	221
News Coverage and Interviews	221
Piano Tuning	222
More on the SM's Working Relationships	222
A New Beginning	222
The Professional Experience: An SM
Overwhelmed	223

15. Opening Performance 225

The Event of an Opening Performance	225
Hellish Openings	226
The Supreme Power and Rights of the SM	227
One Voice	227
Curtain Bows	227
Last Minute Cue Noting	227
Encore Bows	228
Arrival of Congratulatory Items	228
Working the PA System	228
The Half-Hour Call	228
Use of the Terms Company and Cast	229
Repetitive Information	229
Giving Notes, Instructions, or Directions to the Cast	229
Half-Hour: The Cast's Time	230
The Fifteen-Minute Call	230
For SMs' Use Only	230
The Five-Minute Call	230
Prompt and Consistent	231
Applause and Acknowledgment	231
Curtain UP!	232

The Professional Experience	232
The Scarlet Primper-Nell	232

16. Run of the Show 234

Reviews and Ticket Sales	234
A New Show	234
A Shift in Work	234
The Show is Frozen	234
Company Manager and SM Left in Charge	234
The SM's Work and Responsibilities	235
The SM's Log Book	236
Sample Entries in a Log Book	236
Actor Changes and Improvements	239
Knowing Acting and Directing	239
Giving Actors Performance Notes	239
Varying Performances	240
The SM's Transition in Giving Performance
Notes	241
Giving Stars Performance Notes	241
Delivering Other People's Performance
Notes	241
A Final Step: Follow-Up	242
The ASM Takes Stage	242
The ASM Prepares	242
The ASM's Working Disadvantage	243
Show Insurance: The Show Must Go On	243
Updating the Blocking	243
Days Off and Matinee Days	243
Matinee Performances	244
Rehearsals During the Run of the Show	244
Brush-Up Rehearsals	244
Line Rehearsals	244
Understudy Rehearsals	244
Stand-By Performers	247
Replacement Performers	248
Prompting or Feeding Actors Lines	248
Creating Close Friendships	248
The Professional Experience	248
Star Power: Box Office Power	248
Walking in Elephant's Shoes	249
The Reluctant Star Understudy	250

17. The Touring Show 252

Types of Touring Shows	252
Equity Care	254

The Company Manager, Touring Manager, and SM	254
The Wear and Tear of Touring	254
The Road Crew	255
The SMs	255
The Actors	255
The Parts and Phases of Touring	255
Part One: Closing Out the Show and Packing	255
Part Two: Traveling	257
Part Three: Setting Up and Being Ready for the First Performance	261
Additional Work for the Touring SM	264
Spike Marks and Taping	264
Additional Conversation with the FOH	264
Focusing the Show Lights	264
Spotlight Cues	264
Local Actors	265
Another SM Myth	265
On the Road Relationships and Behavior	265
Living Together	265
The Actors	266
The Crew	266
Cast and Crew	266
The SM	266
The Performance on the Road	267
The Professional Experience	267
On the Road with a Major Musical, by Anne Sullivan	267

18. Closing the Show 271

The Closing Notice	271
Feelings	271
The SM's Obligation to the End	271
A Final SM Myth	271
The Silent Preparations	272
The SM's Preparatory Work	272
The Production Book	272
State of the Production Book	272
The SM's Personal Library	273
The Cueing Script	273
The Blocking Script	273
Much to Do About Nothing	273
A Production Book for the Director?	273
The Log Book	274
The Final Address List	274
Collecting Scripts	274
Personal Props	274
The Last Performance	275
The Equity Bond	275
Departure and Goodbyes	275
The Professional Experience	276

19. In the Line of Fire 277

Glossary: The SM's Working Vocabulary 293

Index	341
-------	-----